The need of the deabrahamization of spirituality

Dear readers, in this article, I will deal with a topic that is very important to talk about, which is how Abrahamicized spirituality is here on Earth and the need to unravel it, as well as combating the Abrahamicization of spirituality before it become fully Abrahamized.

As we see, nowadays, new age Christianity (Intergalactic Christianity) has been gaining a lot of strength in the last years, or better saying, decades. We see narratives such as the Law of the One, the Pleiadian narratives and the galactic federation of light that are literally intergalactic Christianity, among others. And so, we see the gradual elimination of neo-paganism in the spiritual, such as Anunnakism and other non-Christian spiritual currents. Reaching the point of partly integrating Buddhist spiritual currents with intergalactic Christianity.

Not forgetting, of course, fallenangelism, which feeds racism, xenophobia and human chauvinism in all aspects, especially the spiritual. And of course, not forgetting, the hegemonization of neopositivism in spirituality and the increase in neoconservatism and neoliberalism in the spiritual community.

However, here comes a big question, how to fight it all?

The answer to that is something very simple, we need a plan for politicization and reflection of spirituality, in order to make spirituality something critical and thoughtful. Increasing the idea of cooperation and solidarity in human spirituality, with a fight against capitalism and neoliberalism, seeking radical alternatives to them, such as socialism, communism, anarchism or even the Anunnaki model, and there is also the fight against positivism within of spirituality, in order to understand that the spiritual question must be studied and understood in a non-positivist or even anti-positivist way.

With that, we must make a plan to allow the preservation and survival of Neopaganism, Anunnakism and other non-Abrahamic spiritual currents within spirituality. So that intergalactic Christianity cannot expand and start to be reduced until it is no longer a threat to human spirituality. As well as, of course, a plan to deabrahamize spirituality, so that we can break with Abrahamism and follow non-Abrahamic spiritual currents more easily.

We cannot forget, too, the plan to combat fallenangelism, through the increase of bioequalism in human spirituality and teach that all beings are equal and like humans, with their differences, such as personality, level of existence, powers etc. Thus, being able to integrate the Earth into the higher planes more easily and thus make humans into a mythical and spiritual race much more easily.

In conclusion, the need to deabrahamize spirituality is something we should think about and even imagine how to deabrahamize it, in this article, I gave some ideas to deabrahamize spirituality and make humans into a mythical and spiritual race more easily, of course , that we can come up with other ideas, such as the gradual unraveling of spirituality, etc. But, the important thing is that spirituality is unraveled and humans become a mythical and spiritual race, in addition to being integrated with the other mythical and spiritual races.
